More About Reverse Side

I attemtpted go get to Russia after all failed in the USA. As far as I can tell the only thing "I did wrong" was to be the son of a WW 2 P-51 and F-86 pilot who watched the first atomic blast from a tower and delivered two more two Japan as part of the air wings resonsible for that fucntion. This setup an interest in my DNA, the missue of our family DNA and the attacks on me the last member of that family.

I was not that interested in politics just stopping the attacks on me attacks based in social theory or simply extorion rings run by the sewage of policing in the USA and the sewer of Texas.

I have corroborating witnesses who like I have not been understood we are so few and so discredited and so obstructed in our justice seeking.

Why else would harrassment in this matter occur and of the scale it has? Even the excuses fail to explain it or explain the harrassment of others telling the same story but from varied backgrounds and varied families.

Jen and Ed assert this is party of dirty warfare to trip us up and if the threats and abuse do not silence us by conflicts arising from that violence may be used lacking any fabricated-contexts predicates. Many directly tied to this have been discovered dead after reporting threats. Many deaths go far back into history of JFK and RFK an McMartin Preschool also tied to Franklin Nebraska CIA operations.

- Threat of violence: Stalking, veiled threats, or explicit threats create chronic hypervigilance and panic.
- Gaslighting: Denial, minimization, and discrediting that produce self-doubt and confusion.
- Social isolation: Smear campaigns or exclusion that remove supportive contacts.
- Surveillance / implied monitoring: Real or suggested observation that produces justified paranoia.
- Harassment tied to career: Sabotage, blocking access, or professional attacks that threaten livelihood and meaning.
- Targeted humiliation by authority figures: Shame and physiological stress responses.

I. Historical Lineage and Strategic Vulnerability

James Paul Donegan, born in Dorchester, Massachusetts-a Roman Catholic stronghold and home to the Kennedy family-was later involved in several high-stakes national security domains:

- Atomic Bombing & First Test Blast Participation
- DNA Research and Early Genetic Studies
- Cold War CIA Reconnaissance Missions

This convergence of military, scientific, and intelligence roles placed the Donegan family in proximity to classified operations and historical flashpoints. Ed Donegan asserts that this lineage made him a target for institutional scrutiny and covert harassment, especially as he began to speak out about suppressed narratives surrounding JFK.

II. Psychological Weaponization and Institutional Misconduct

Jen Moore, a former police officer and trauma specialist, identified a disturbing pattern: mental health services were not merely therapeutic but were weaponized as part of a broader COINTELPRO-style operation. She argued that:

- Mental health diagnoses were used to discredit and surveil whistleblowers
- Disabled individuals and psychiatric patients were manipulated to "bird-dog" targets
- Therapeutic environments became platforms for intimidation and political vigilantism

Moore's insights into Borderline Personality Disorder, Complex PTSD, and trauma-induced emotional paralysis were not just clinical-they were strategic. She believed that emotional vulnerability could be exploited to silence dissent, especially among those with inherited trauma or volatile emotional profiles.

III. Surveillance, Harassment, and the Silencing of Whistleblowers

Ed Donegan recounts a series of experiences that mirror Moore's warnings:

- Harassment through legal and mental health systems
- Targeted intimidation in public service buildings like Sequoia Plaza
- Mischaracterization of political beliefs as threats, despite non-hostile views

Slander has been created to fabricate the motive to harass Ed Donegan.

Jen Moore's death, under circumstances that remain contested, marked a chilling endpoint in a pattern of whistle blower silencing. Her video footage, interviews, and psychological frameworks continue to inform Donegan's archive and advocacy.

IV. Conclusion: A Call for Transparency and Justice

This essay is not merely a personal account-it is a call to recognize and expose the covert mechanisms used to suppress truth-tellers. The intersection of family history, psychological vulnerability, and institutional misconduct demands scrutiny. As Ed Donegan continues to document these patterns, the legacy of Jen Moore and others like her remains a guiding light in the fight for transparency, justice, and systemic reform.

Extortion is the building on something legitimate with something illegitimate added to it. The user of a gym is extorted by the abusers in control of the gym, the library, etc., in frame-ups in those locations. This goes into my attempts to get out of the USA.

Warning Federal Crime Ring Operates in This Area

neighborhood-warning-flyer.jpg It is a flier sometimes handed out by people who are a victim of illegal covert teams of aggressors. Often the teams are using poisons in food, violent thugs, and other crimes "targeting" a person. Frequently their lifeblood is illegal contraband as the "money" of the operation.

Contraband refers to goods that are illegally traded, possessed, or transported, often prohibited due to their nature or because they are smuggled across borders. It encompasses items that are illegal to import, export, or possess, and can include anything from drugs and weapons to goods that violate trade restrictions. - AI.

The FBI have secretly planted child porn here they plant it abusively and demand sexortion payments constantly and obsessively shrieking about "money" if they not to prosecute the planted evidence. They want money and drool over its existence and what it is to them. "Fill up this cup with semen" "aka some "money" It is a sextortion demand I do not agree to but a trust fund with the authority or justification to do so will do so, give into the extortion demand than it be used as contraband to traffic in commercially.

Respectfully and Lawfully Using Former Skills to Expose Government Corruption and get this into the MSM

In regards to Veronica Hoffman I said to a criminal operation you do know with whom you have picked out as victims. The power of three in Tom Dunham, Ed Donegan, and Veronica Hoffman in media work, public recognition, and web skills. And add Jen Moore easily into that with former police detective work in sex crimes, in racketeering and gang crimes, in fighting thugs, in understanding bunko and and having a husband who was a professional auditor of frauds and money laundering. She wa also an expert in Psychology and knew Borderline Personality Disorder, Dissociative Identity Disorder, PTSD and Complex Post Traumatic Stress Disorder, and research into how traumatic situations can become severely painful to the trauma victim.

> -- Um, one of the things I'm doing today is, uh, I think it' very interesting that for a long time now, uh, those people that are targeted and, um, watched and harassed by people in power um, are having the tables turned on them right now, or at east somewhat. And those of us that have been in that position are now becoming the watchers. So, a lot of these people don't even realize that as hey've gathered their uh you know, faked evidence or their um their targeting and their following and their intimidation tactics that um those being watched [and harassed by these thugs] are now uh becoming the watchers and doing 1our own um recordings and gathering of documents and evidence and information and they don't even know it.

> Sometimes we might be sitting right beside them and they don't even know it, which is interesting because that's what they like to do to other people - try to covertly film a Target as being near a panted little girl, etc.,) They like to do it to innocent people [not who are] pedophiles though and we're actually turning the tables and doing it to people that are guilty (of frame-ups) or at least accused by others (other targeted individuals) of [federal] crimes (of harassment and surveillance slander, frauds, intimidation, and threats). And so, but we're doing it in a respectful and lawful way, of course, but we're using our uh techniques and training we had in the past to flip the tables on these people (ad bring justice the those in power framing us). --

Jen Moore and I said more than this about not wanting to speak out but having to for justice ands safety

I came from frame-ups and harrasment and financial abuse in Alrington Couty, Viriginia, the Easterd District of Virginia where I lived with my mother who made her will there when I was living with and talking about it with her, lawywers were thrre Elder Law Partners, the Jessica Aber team and Tom Donegan meeting with Tim Kaine in the Clarendon area home of Tomm Donegan and Mark Weirness were there, and much of this started.

To leave this I tried moving to Texas. At arrival in THAT gym I notved more frame-ups. I was somewhat light-heared about it. I knew people were jelous of the amazing results I had so quickly and were discreding me and copying me. But I also said very publcly the real reason for all of this MUST be the Kennedy assassination and I had never wanted to get intot that but if I really had to and really needed to expose what is really happening than unless I was paid off with a web dev job I WOULD go into the Kenendy assasination. And that is just what Jen Moore said of me and my familly. I really didn't want to go into family secrets but because I was being targeted over them I was somewhat covertly trying to find some safe-harober with those who might undersand the situation or finally just go public with family historical reesearch RATHER than natual law and high tech that I DESIRED to write about instead fearing WW III might be nearing. Jen Moore will say this person she was protecting did not want to tell his story but was thinking now he had to.

I do not film in gyms, etc., but do film or record where I am allowed and even would be expected to and for the reason for a a person would such as at scenci locations. While doing that or in my own home I have pickued up fraudsaters at work creating frame-ups.

The following is the treason allegations made by Jen Moore who along with corroborators assert a JFK assassination cover-up is still underway and by of course very illegal tactics. She asserted as others do that Abuse of Psychiatry is being used to diagnose victims of covert government activities as Bipolar, Paranoid, Schizophrenic, or perhaps other misdiagnosis. Borderline Personality Disorder does exist in the Donegan family and others and that research has been part of hidden identifies in the USA who have in genetics inherited the disease from high profile families around the world. Identifying Ed Donegan as a terrorist personality has been part of this fraud.

The Abuse of Psychiatry scheme not only discredits whistle-blowers and other victims the scheme uses mental health patients to attack the person trapped in the mental health system as well. This is used as dirty warfare by dirty-tricksters in espionage operations being conducted inside the USA.

One video included into this longer one is Stalked by the Feds on that modus operandi of usage of false flag events and rumor mongering to create a black-listing of Targeted Individuals to landlords, banking, etc., such they the Target of the operations will be turned down for housing, loans, every lawyers or other resources who get manipulated by the slander of the Target to isolate the Target.

Another video in the longer video is Jen Moore who asserts she as an insider to the operation was a whistle-blower. Arlington County Mental Health Services in Virginia at Sequoia Plaza and Drewrey Center (she filmed both locations) were defrauding the Donegan family using the homeless and mentally ils as both assailants and as role-players acting out officially directed scenarios that included everything from making death threats to the Target (me and her) break-ins, violent attacks, staged acts fabricating the appearance of child abuse, racketeering and frauds based on false allegations, and other criminal activities in a network of illegal activities.

What Jen Moore asserted is the derogatory information circulated about Ed Donegan was information calculated to destroy gym life, apartment renting, and other community involvement was based on use of a double who earned the bad reputation for Ed Donegan while using in identity theft Ed Donegan's identity. Before her death she noted that she then had in her hand the proof con artist in this espionage con job had faked everything and often were just criminals hoping to make it big suing Ed Donegan on false charges that correlate with the impersonator of Ed Donegan and not the real Ed Donegan.

Throughout my books and press releases information I show that she, I and others can clearly prove a racketeering illegal scheme and that it is tied to Allen Dulles, the CIA, and hidden identities inside the USA still being kept secret. Another Abuse of Psychiatry allegation she makes and is true is that the use of Psychiatry to identify the weaknesses of a Borderline personality to stress has been played upon by the mental health system to trip up the Target of investigations have the homeless and mentally ills surround and harass the Target.

> The Island (2005) presents a dystopian facility where human clones—called “products” or “breeders”—are created to serve the biological needs of wealthy sponsors. These clones lack traditional parents and are deceived into believing they are survivors awaiting transfer to a paradise called “The Island.”

⚙️ Core elements

- ➜🧬 Manufactured lineage: Clones are grown artificially, with no normal parentage.
- ➜🎲 Lottery deception: The supposed escape lottery is actually a selection for organ harvesting.
- ➜💉 Organ trafficking parallel: The narrative mirrors illegal organ trade by commodifying biology.
- ➜👥 Sentient exploitation: Conscious clones are treated as inventory rather than people.
- ➜💰 Sponsor-driven demand: Wealthy clients finance the system for personal survival and profit.

Discrediting

0:1Stalked by the Feds Five ways gangstalkers dismantle their 0:16 targets lives and discredit them so no 0:19 one believes them when they ask for 0:21 help. Number one, they isolate their 0:24 target. I don't know what they say to 0:26 friends and family and everyone in your 0:28 immediate circle, but they get everyone 0:30 away from you. People either take part 0:33 in setting you up for I don't know what 0:36 bribes or positive reinforcement and 0:39 getting to be a part of the group, the 0:41 cool kids. I really don't know. But 0:43 people in your life, they either set you 0:45 up or they get away from you. There's no 0:48 in between and you are completely 0:49 socially ostracized and isolated both 0:52 personally and professionally. 0:55 Two, a wicked smear campaign. The smear 0:58 campaign helps to dismantle the target's 1:00 life because it isolates the victim. It 1:02 ostracizes the victim both 1:04 professionally and personally. So, it 1:06 disables careers. It disables 1:09 relationships, friendships, the ability 1:10 for the target to meet a significant 1:13 other and date and fall in love and get 1:15 married. Three, financial abuse. So, 1:18 gangstalkers are going to make it so 1:20 that you cannot make money. They are 1:22 going to block every effort that you 1:24 make to make money. They will file 1:25 fraudulent lawsuits to end careers. They 1:28 will file fraudulent court orders. They 1:31 will plant customers to come into your 1:33 life and complain to your boss. They 1:36 will mass report monetize social media 1:38 accounts so that you can't make money on 1:40 social media. They will turn your debit 1:42 and credit cards on and off so that you 1:44 can't purchase groceries except for when 1:46 they allow you to purchase them. They 1:49 will turn your debit card on and off so 1:51 that sometimes it will work at the ATM 1:52 so you can withdraw cash and other times 1:54 it won't. You'll call your bank and your 1:56 bank will say, "Well, there's nothing 1:57 wrong on our end." Four, legal abuse. If 2:01 you're gangstalked, you are going to be 2:02 dragged through the legal system, both 2:04 civily and criminally on multiple 2:07 different offenses and multiple 2:09 different court orders because the way 2:11 that they do this, it's a slow burn, 2:12 right? Like they don't just slam 2:14 everything all at once. They do it over 2:16 time to create a paper trail and make it 2:18 look like you're this menace to society 2:21 and they have all these different people 2:22 saying the same thing about you over an 2:24 extended period of time because it 2:26 discredits you. But they will drag you 2:28 through the legal system. They will set 2:29 you up. They will put you in setups to 2:31 get you to take the bait to do something 2:34 that will make you look bad and that 2:36 will help them get a fraudulent court 2:38 order on you. They will pay off corrupt 2:41 judges to sign off on court orders 2:43 without even serving you and putting 2:44 things on your record that you have no 2:46 idea were there for years. 2:49

Number five, discrediting. They will 2:51 tell everyone that you are the menace to 2:53 society. You are the abuser. You are the 2:55 harasser. You are the stalker. You're 2:57 not being stalked. You're the stalker. 2:59 you're the harasser. They will tell 3:01 everyone those things and get a lot of 3:03 people to believe them so that when you 3:06 cry for help and when you ask people for 3:08 help, no one who has the ability to help

Um,3:20today I am on another mission and um, as3:24everybody knows that follows my channel,3:26I um, investigate a lot of uh,3:30trafficking, child trafficking3:31specifically. And I have a lot of3:33victims and witnesses and whistleblowers3:35and uh, silence targeted individuals who3:40really want to tell their stories and3:41have them investigated. and we're doing3:43everything we can to um bridge the gap3:47for them and get uh federal3:49investigators. I'm going to keep people3:51off camera for a second. So,3:54um3:58to get federal investigators uh that4:01will listen and um be protective4:05involved in their cases to do proper4:07investigations. Um, one of the things4:09I'm doing today is, uh, I think it's4:12very interesting that for a long time4:14now, uh, those people that are targeted4:16and, um, watched and harassed4:22by people in power um, are having the4:25tables turned on them right now, or at4:26least somewhat. And those of us that4:29have been in that position are now4:31becoming the watchers. So, a lot of4:35these people don't even realize that as4:37they've gathered their uh you know, fake4:40evidence or their um their targeting and4:43their following and their intimidation4:45tactics that um those being watched are4:48now uh becoming the watchers and doing4:51our own um recordings and4:55gathering of documents and evidence and4:57information and they don't even know it.5:00Sometimes we might be sitting right5:01beside them and they don't even know it.5:03Which is interesting because that's what5:05they like to do to other people. They5:07like to do it to innocent people though5:09and we're actually turning the tables5:11and doing it to people that are guilty5:14or at least accused by others of crimes.5:17And so, but we're doing it in a5:18respectful and lawful way, of course,5:21but we're using our uh techniques and5:24training we had in the past to flip the5:27tables on these people. And that's some5:29of what I'm doing today, where I'll be5:30going today. Obviously, I can't give out5:32details as usual. Um I wish I could, but5:35for safety reasons, I can't. Safety of5:37my own and also other people involved in5:39this. So, but today I'm going to be5:41turning the tables on some of these um5:44people as we should call them um who5:46have liked to uh do this to others in5:49the past to uh innocent people and5:52gather some facts and documents and5:54maybe even sit right next to them. "Show me the person and I will show you the crime"

When a State has no way to act against an honest person guilt of the person is frabricated allowing the State to act on the fabricated evidence rather than the truth. The public will accept acting on the fabricated evidence if they beleive the fabricated evidence. The fabrication of guilt is to gain a position of power over a person who is not guilty of anything.

The phrase "show me the person and I will show you the crime" is most famously attributed to Lavrentiy Beria, the ruthless head of the Soviet secret police under Joseph Stalin. It describes a perversion of justice where the justice system is used to target and punish a specific individual for political reasons, rather than a crime being investigated to find a perpetrator.

Origin and Meaning

- Context in Soviet Union: The saying reflects the abuse of power during the Stalinist era in the Soviet Union. In a system without the rule of law, authorities could find or fabricate a reason to charge anyone they wanted.
- Process: Beria's method was to target the individual first, presume them guilty, and then find or fabricate a crime to fit. It was a complete reversal of due process.
- Contrast with Western Justice: In contrast, the justice system in the United States is based on the presumption of innocence, where a crime is investigated and then a perpetrator is sought.

Earlier Similar Sayings

Similar cynical ideas about how easy it is to find a fault in anyone have existed for centuries.

- Cardinal Richelieu (17th century): The French statesman is famously quoted as saying, "If you give me six lines written by the hand of the most honest man, I will find enough therein to hang him".
- Lord Braxfield (18th century): The Scottish jurist reportedly said, "Let them bring me prisoners, and I will find them law."

Modern Usage

Today, the phrase is often used to criticize the fabrication of criminal cases for political purposes or to illustrate the weaponization of the justice system. It is invoked when critics allege that a prosecution is politically motivated rather than based on a legitimate criminal investigation.

> "Show me the man and I will show you the crime."

- Lavrentiy Beria, Chief of Stalin's Secret Police

Trained Monkey Acts in lynch mobs started by the Prosecutor violate the Confrontation Clause intentioally

The basic methodolgy of "Flying Monkeys Flinging It" is they cover a Target with dirt the monkey itself manufactured on to the Tagert as it flies by the Target then moves forward beyond the Target showing the Target in that dirt and suggests the the Target be blacklisted or abused because of the Target's smell that all can smell. That a Lynch Mob also called an Office Mob is acting on rumor rather than direct discussions confronting the the allegations is how the system violates the Confrointation Clause.

I have not read The Confrontation Clause & State Action

The Confrontation Clause of the Sixth Amendment ensures the veracity of accusations by guaranteeing a criminal defendant the right to face their accuser and test their honesty through cross-examination. This clause prohibits the use of "testimonial" hearsay from an unavailable witness unless the defendant had a prior opportunity to cross-examine them. This is intended to prevent convictions based on unreliable written evidence alone, ensuring the reliability of accusations is assessed through the adversarial process of a trial.

John L. Watts Texas Tech School of Law

The abstract is interesting in that the basics of an allegation can not acted on until proven within the the sphere of the evidence tested by the accused first allowed. It is one thing to say it but of course our legal system also says prove it and our legal system also allows for the accused to confront the allegations veracity.

The Sixth Amendment’s Confrontation Clause works in conjunction with the right to counsel and trial by jury to protect the people against the government’s abuse of its prosecutorial monopoly. However, the history of the Court’s Confrontation Clause jurisprudence has not always focused on the Sixth Amendment’s goal of limiting government power and was treated as virtually synonymous with the hearsay rules. In Crawford v. Washington, the Court restored the Confrontation Clause to constitutional significance by correctly identifying it as a procedural guaranty that empowers the jury to evaluate the reliability of government witnesses through live testimony subject to cross-examination. Unfortunately, the Court’s exclusive focus on testimonial statements as a limitation on the right was misplaced from the beginning, and the multifactor “primary purpose” test for identifying a testimonial statement allows government actors to avoid having to produce live witnesses subject to cross-examination.

This Article proposes to replace the testimonial statement and the “primary purpose” test with a “state action” test that focuses on the government’s role in the creation of the out-of-court statement and thereby prevents government efforts to avoid live testimony and cross-examination at trial. First, the Article explains that the Confrontation Clause must be understood within the context of the right to counsel and trial by jury to ensure that jurors-the people-evaluate the reliability of government witnesses through live testimony subject to cross-examination by the defense counsel. It then demonstrates that the "primary purpose" test results in too much judicial discretion and emboldens police and prosecutors to manipulate the creation of out-ofcourt statements that will not trigger the right of confrontation. As a result, it empowers judges, police, and prosecutors-the very government actors the Sixth Amendment seeks to control.

Second, the Article describes the alternative "state action" test that focuses on the government's role in the creation of the out-of-court statement. The "state action" test would simplify the Confrontation Clause analysis and improve the truth-finding function of criminal trials. Under this test, the analysis is focused on government involvement in the creation of the outof-court statements and thereby prevents the "primary evil" at which it was originally directed-the government's "use of ex-parte examination as evidence against the accused."

Finally, the Article applies the proposed state action test and demonstrates how it would eliminate judicial discretion in mixed-motive cases, prevent the admission of out-of-court statements made to undercover government agents, and require forensic experts working for the government to testify live subject to c ross-examination. In short, it preserves the right of confrontation- the constitutionally mandated means of testing the reliability of government

Fabricated Guilt and the Erosion of Confrontation: From Beria to the Office Mob

I. Introduction

"Show me the man and I will show you the crime." This chilling aphorism, attributed to Lavrentiy Beria, Stalin's feared secret police chief, encapsulates the inversion of justice in authoritarian regimes. Rather than investigating crimes to find perpetrators, the state targets individuals and manufactures guilt to justify punishment. In modern democratic systems, this logic persists in subtler forms-through rumor, institutional mobbing, and procedural manipulation. This essay explores how fabricated guilt undermines the Sixth Amendment's Confrontation Clause, drawing on historical precedent, legal doctrine, and contemporary critiques. It concludes by advocating for a "state action" test to restore the Clause's original purpose: protecting the people from the unchecked power of the state.

II. Historical Foundations of Fabricated Guilt

Beria's Doctrine

Lavrentiy Beria's infamous quote reflects the Stalinist model of justice: guilt is not discovered but assigned. Under Beria's leadership, the Soviet NKVD routinely fabricated charges to eliminate political threats. The process reversed due process-first selecting the target, then inventing the crime. This practice was not merely a tool of repression; it was a mechanism of control, reinforcing the state's dominance over truth and law.

Earlier Echoes

This logic predates Beria. Cardinal Richelieu, the 17th-century French statesman, reportedly said, "If you give me six lines written by the hand of the most honest man, I will find enough therein to hang him." Similarly, Scottish jurist Lord Braxfield declared, "Let them bring me prisoners, and I will find them law." These statements reveal a longstanding cynicism about the elasticity of legal interpretation when wielded by power.

III. The Confrontation Clause as a Constitutional Check

Textual and Structural Role

The Sixth Amendment's Confrontation Clause guarantees that "in all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right…to be confronted with the witnesses against him." This right, alongside trial by jury and counsel, forms a triad of protections against prosecutorial overreach. It ensures that accusations are tested through live testimony and cross-examination, preserving the adversarial nature of American justice.

Crawford v. Washington

In Crawford v. Washington (2004), the Supreme Court revitalized the Confrontation Clause, rejecting the prior hearsay-based approach and emphasizing the need for live, adversarial testing of testimonial statements. The Court recognized that the Clause was designed to prevent the "primary evil" of ex parte examinations-statements made outside the courtroom and presented without cross-examination.

Critique of the "Primary Purpose" Test

Despite Crawford, subsequent jurisprudence introduced the "primary purpose" test to determine whether a statement is testimonial. This test, however, grants excessive discretion to judges and allows prosecutors and police to structure statements to evade confrontation. As John L. Watts argues, this doctrinal drift empowers the very actors the Sixth Amendment was meant to restrain.

IV. The "Flying Monkeys" Allegory and Office Mobs

Metaphorical Analysis

The allegory of "Flying Monkeys Flinging It" captures the dynamics of institutional rumor-mongering. Like Beria's tactics, these actors fabricate dirt and fling it at a target, then move on-leaving the target smeared and isolated. The dirt, though manufactured, becomes the basis for ostracism and abuse.

Mob Dynamics

In office mobs or prosecutorial lynch mobs, guilt is presumed and reinforced through repetition, not evidence. These mobs act on rumor, not direct confrontation. The accused is denied the opportunity to challenge the allegations through cross-examination, violating the Confrontation Clause's core purpose.

Violation of Confrontation

Such practices mirror Beria's logic: the person is the target, and the crime is constructed. When institutions rely on hearsay, anonymous complaints, or indirect accusations, they bypass the constitutional requirement for live testimony. The result is a system where reputation replaces evidence and rumor supplants truth.

V. The State Action Test: A Proposed Remedy

Watts' Proposal

John L. Watts proposes replacing the "primary purpose" test with a "state action" test. This approach focuses on the government's role in creating out-of-court statements. If the state is involved in producing the statement, the Confrontation Clause is triggered-requiring live testimony and cross-examination.

Advantages

The state action test restores the jury's role in evaluating reliability and limits prosecutorial manipulation. It simplifies analysis, reduces judicial discretion, and aligns with the Clause's original intent: preventing government actors from using untested statements as evidence.

Applications

- Statements made to undercover agents would require confrontation.
- Forensic experts working for the government must testify live.
- Mixed-motive cases would no longer allow judges to sidestep confrontation.

This approach re-centers the trial on adversarial testing and protects the accused from institutional abuse.

VI. Conclusion

From Beria's Soviet tactics to modern office mobs, the fabrication of guilt remains a potent tool of control. The Confrontation Clause stands as a constitutional bulwark against such abuses, ensuring that accusations are tested, not presumed. Yet current doctrine allows the state to evade this safeguard. By adopting the state action test, courts can restore the Clause's integrity and reaffirm the principle that justice must confront, not conceal. In a system where power seeks justification, the right to confrontation is not merely procedural-it is the last line of defense against tyranny.

Offering Contraband to crime ring participants as really often defining to the crime. The contraband may be weapons, drugs, or illicit cash gains not reported, or perhaps something reported in the legal system but was the result of fraud. The opportunities in fraud to get illegal contraband is the enticement of criminal partners. Some I quote in my book suggest they are "Robin Hoods" on a just mission and their excuse falls short since so many honest people have died in the cover-ups mostly even on their own side but who knew too much.

No one has more need to plant snakes in the grass to attack law abiding citizens than the snakes in office that are Old Management who face the death penalty for their illegal activities. I continue to write coroner offices and police agencies that the snakes in the grass directed at me are working for snakes in offices today and that is both a risk to me and a risk to national security. The scheme works because corruption is fueled by they honey of honey pots, bed room honeys, honey pots of gold, and honey pots of illegal trafficked black market materials. I live in places controlled by the Old Management in place where I am too close to finding their skeletons. These can follow me the snakes to new locations I go to so I email as much as I can but that is about the best I can do.

In a video I quote from below Conspiracy Theorist Or Truth-Teller Jen Moore makes some statements not all of which I can say I understand. But if I explain Reverse side and Starbucks near Whole Foods I can more or less confirm what she is saying. 022_46_3233ReverseSide.jpg

I know who I always have been, always have been interested in, and what is being play-acted about the issues I supposedly have. In fact the play-acting lies about me are the worst of crimes from the worst of criminals. These liars assert I exploit you children with my eyes of backpacks, etc., I know that they know that has never been true except for a few times of very rare circumstances when that evil was the lessor of two evils. When I was loaded on amphetamines and leaving the house I wasn't gonig to do. In large seeps of download some but not much was teen porn. None EVER was gym porn I have no interest in.

The bigger the meal the bigger the predator. Predatory stalkers have hindered my gym access where I was a success fighting diabetes and predators have targeted my genome for "pay-outs." Further the biggest of political sharks are behind the predatory feeding on me and it is probable some of the minors acting out me victimizing them are from police families like Austin and Corpus Christi police, fire, and EMS.

These "evil" have made it hard for me to use the gym. I tried contacting all concerned from 2013 on about Medical Foundations for Spending docx and other works yet my gym use is mocked and slandered. As I wrote in that Starbucks I knew then and now I face eventual limb amputation. FOr now I can use my legs, not much, to fight off diabetes and that will not always last. In Russia I said then in that Starbucks if the saw goes to my legs it would be medicine. In this country it is the police, fire, and EMS doing the damage they have wanted.

Why would predators be so abusive? it is tied to high ranking officials as all Gang Stalking is. I can cope quite easily the fact one day I will have a heart attack, a stroke, be hit by a bus, get cancer, or something else will happen and probably by my fault. What sickens me is that this county is so oblivious to the law, to the first amendment, to truth telling, etc., and the stench the USA is black marketing genome, etc.,

WARNING

FEDERAL CRIME RINGS OPERATE IN THIS NEIGHBORHOOD. USE EXTREME CAUTION!

Throughout this The Advocacy For Retarded Children (who need lessons) of Northern Virginia and Arlington County Services of Sequoia Plaza I have considered suspects all along

This is taken from the Great Treason an exchange with ARC of NOVA when my attempts to use the gym were financially frustrated AND I was surrouned by mental health patients in the gym mocking me

We need the entire contract. The pages you sent do not indicate that you are bound to an on-going contract.

Please understand that we are doing our duty as managers and are accountable. Half a contract is not sufficient supporting documentation.

Look for the giant type “Membership Agreement” at the top of page one to indicate it is a legal agreement in writing between two parties. Look in the section “monthly dues” for information on monthly dues. Look to page 2 for my autodeduct from my checking authorization.,

Ed, That is my assumption, that it repeats, but the document doesn’t state that. It states a beginning and end date as you and I have both noted.

Tia; you said regarding the 1st page of the gym contract I sent you

That page one was not a STATEMENT. IT was a CONTRACT. If you read Page 1 is says (in the Membership and Electronic Funds Transfer section) that the initial term of the contract is the first month, sept 1 through 30, then the bill repeats each month by electronic funds transfer unless cancelled.

Ed, First, the trust was only recently established and funded with The Arc. Any request prior to your trust being established with us would have been of no use. We are more than happy to approve requests as long as you send us the Disbursement request form correctly completed and with your signature and appropriate supporting documentation.

To have a request approved it is very simple: please send us a statement from Sport and Health that shows your name, on-going membership, the amount to be paid, and address. If you haven't already sent a recurring disbursement request form, send a signed one to us, too.

To date you have sent us a statement that has a September 1, 2013 start date and a September 30, 2013 end date. This cannot be used to pay a monthly payment since there is no indication that you have a membership.

I have 143 email sent items trying to get gym re-imbursement since my diabetes diagnsosis, starting with this email, 8/17/2013, where I was already trying to get ARC to take over because would never provide an accounting of the trust, a copy of the trust, or any disbursments. As of today, those 143 emails plus about 50 or o I probably deleted, 7 faxes, 5 scans, 19 txt messages, and at least 20 phone calls later, 8 mothns later, and after breaking down crying four times wondering "how in the hell is it possible I can't get this re-mbursed..?"

It still isn't.

What is it going to take?

It may be very odd to allege Gold's Gym Staff were or are serial killers. Jen Moore is dead and I have been surrounded by people carrying out vastly illegal "Black Bag" operations (plants of, manufacture of child porn, electronic disruption of gym smart-phone environment, peeping, racketeering, and other acts which were far beyond any legality or constitutionality.

Like with most of my life where this has happened under color of law it leads me into the questions of "why and who?"

I believe internal to the US, illegal in the US, US State actors are acting in concert with and international illegal operation, racketeering genome rights, and are sabotaging my own, and further these often "scuzzy" social elements were drawn from active felon environments I will later describe as a racially motivated and criminal lumpenproletaria.

In particular, in the specific, these were an underclass of felons or felons-to-be who sought aggrandizement of themselves at the expense to others and myself, costing of a normal gym environment and I further allege that they were part of RICO scheme which though operating under color of law was both legally and morally knave and motivated by racial predation in what one who studies sociology would call “competition for the company of white females” and gym bragging rights.

I am a "Russian Sympathizer" for many reasons supporting (as a non-Christian) Eastern religions such as the Russian Orthodox and Greek Orthodox churches in their struggles through history and against Anglican US and Vatican aggression. I have in early life thought it was the Muslims who were backward. I now see it is Western Christians who are and who now are coming to realize that in part through contact with me.

Hey uhm safe locaions

0:01 okay it's day 3.2 I believe although I've made many films before that I started numbering the days because people are asking me to do that so I think it was last night and on what I was doing here in this random Midwestern State and I'm doing some more interviews regarding child sex trafficking so I spent the day with a parent of a child that was recruited into by the child's father who is a high high ranking official with within law enforcement and that's all I'll say for now they got his child involved into a pedophile ring Luciferian ring time he was a little boy and so I spent the day interviewing this parent and I have spoken to this person before but never met them in person and also got a chance to look at some additional evidence and there's an extensive interview videotaped it for evidence purposes so it will be a copy or tardy actually has been copied and sent out to various locations so should anyone want to try to take it it's too late now it's gone already - hey safe locations
